IN THE MATTER OF Robert Lewis – Settlement Accepted L’avis en français sera disponible sous peu.

December 7, 2015 (Vancouver, B.C.) – On November 18, 2015, a Hearing Panel of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) accepted a Settlement Agreement, with sanctions, between IIROC staff and Robert Lewis.

Mr. Lewis admitted that he engaged in unauthorized outside business activities involving the preparation of tax returns; engaged in personal financial dealings with several clients; made an unauthorized settlement with a client; and used blank signed client forms to process transactions in clients’ accounts. He also admitted to making improper use of monies from clients’ accounts held outside his firm.

Specifically, Mr. Lewis admitted to the following violations:

- (a) Between 2008 and 2012, Mr. Lewis acted contrary to Dealer Member Rules 29.1 and 18.14 by preparing tax returns for his clients and charging a fee for this service without the written approval of his firm;
- (b) Between 2008 and 2012, Mr. Lewis engaged in personal financing dealings with five of his clients contrary to Dealer Member Rule 29.1 by loaning funds to his clients without the knowledge or approval of his firm;
- (c) Between September and December 2011, Mr. Lewis acted contrary to Dealer Member Rule 29.1 when he failed to notify the firm of a client complaint and settled the client complaint without the approval or knowledge of his firm;

- (d) Between 2008 and 2012, Mr. Lewis acted contrary to Dealer Member Rule 29.1 by using blank forms and documents which had been signed by his clients to process client instructions concerning transactions they had authorized in their accounts; and
- (e) Between 2008 and 2012, Mr. Lewis acted contrary to Dealer Member Rule 29.1 when he made improper use of monies from clients' credit union accounts held outside his firm.

Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Mr. Lewis agreed to the following penalties:

- (a) A suspension from registration in any capacity with IIROC for five years;
- (b) A fine of $175,000 which includes disgorgement of fees; and
- (c) 12 months of strict supervision upon any re-registration with IIROC.

Mr. Lewis also agreed to pay costs in the amount of $20,000.

IIROC formally initiated the investigation into Mr. Lewis' conduct in July 2012. The violations occurred while he was a Registered Representative with the Vancouver branch of Manulife Securities Inc., an IIROC-regulated firm. Mr. Lewis is currently not a Registered Representative with an IIROC-regulated firm.
